This book includes pottery made from 1933 through 1990. The book contains current values of Frankoma. This is a reference and price guide to the fine wares. Frankoma produced from 1933 to the 1990's. Not only is the regular line examined, but the Gracetone lines are included as well. Included is a detailed history of the company and its designers, full color photographs and original catalog pages, marks, reference numbers, years of production all making the identification a simple task. The author, Gary Schaum, was very pleased to have Joniece Donna Frank, daughters of John Grace Lee Frank help with the publishing of this fine book.
