The Skill Builders series serves the reader who needs to master specific skills for the purpose of passing an important test, such as an exit exam, admissions test, vocational exam, or certification exam. In 20 step-by-step lessons, readers learn the fundamentals of critical thinking and apply essential problem-solving skills needed for success. Targeted lessons require a time commitment of just twenty minutes a day, and readers have the flexibility of tailoring a study program that suits their needs and time constraints.
