In an endearing personal account, Doris Yeske shares her love and knowledge of Depression glass and knowledge accumulated through years of research. This is the perfect starter book for any would-be collector - a gentle and humorous introduction to the hobby starting with the origins of the glass, leading them through garage sales and auctions, and on to a more extensive knowledge of specific colors, patterns, pieces, and prominent companies. For anyone already ensconced in this brilliant world of affordable, attainable glassware, this compatriot is ready to share her stories. More than 240 images accompany the engaging text, complete with current values.

About the Author A retired teacher, Doris Yeske's interest in Depression Glass was piqued when she inherited a few pieces of pink and green from her parents. Doris began researching the subject, which led to her life-long interest in the subject. She resides in West Salem, WI.
