I'm only about half way through it now, but so far so good. There is nothing really earth shattering in here, and if you think about it, you can think of this stuff on your own. However, what makes this nice is hearing it from a seasoned professional, and frankly, just hearing it from anyone to help you organize your own thoughts is a big plus. Gavin Strange is very articulate in this book, and spells out so much of it clearly. It's an easy book to pick up and just start reading
