Investigate the use of the five senses in the animal kingdom in these pages drawn from the Bizarre Beautiful series. Youll learn basic information about the five senses, then see how different animals use their ears, eyes, feelers, noses, and tongues. Discover an anteater that can stick out it tongue 100 times a minute, catfish who use their whiskers to feel for food at lake bottoms, a gecko who can scurry across ceilings without falling to the floor, and 90 more fascinating and unusual animals. Whether searching for food, running from danger, or playing with their mates, these animals truly are bizarre and beautiful.
